

Knowledge is power. Power your team with Propel Rx training.

Using a blended learning approach to training and providing real-life examples allows your team to learn by doing, practicing, and engaging with the learning content.

- A combination of self-directed eLearning through our Retail Learning Academy and instructor-lead sessions will provide your team with the skills they need to succeed.
- The Retail Learning Academy is an online learning platform which provides an entire suite of courses that can be re-taken at any time. Conveniently learn on any device, in any location.
- You and your team will also gain access to elite instructors and an unmatched hands-on experience built on 25 years of training expertise. Get ready to become a Propel Rx expert.
- Additional training days may be purchased based on the unique needs of your business.
